Whether containing invasive species in area lakes or preventing water contamination from mining, agriculture and natural gas exploration, we’re constantly illuminating solutions for all of our precious resources. See more highlights at umn.edu.